INTERNAL AFFAIRS BUREAU
INVESTIGATIVE SUMMARY
DEPUTY-INVOLVED, NON-HIT SHOOTING
IAB #SH2260482

URN:	010-02258-2812-055
DATE/TIME:	Wednesday, February 10, 2010, 2145 hours
LOCATION:	[redacted] East 139th Street, Compton, California, 90220
SUSPECT:	Allen Yamain Gonzalez, MH/19, booking number #2225059 "Compton Varrio Tokers" gang member, moniker: "Chucky"
INVOLVED EMPLOYEES:	Deputy Dejay Barber, #[redacted], Unit 285E, EM's Deputy Kevin Lawler, #[redacted], Unit 285E, EM's Deputy David Perry, #[redacted], Unit 283D, PM's

On July 11, 2009, the Internal Affairs Bureau's Force and Shooting Response Team responded to the City of Compton, regarding a deputy involved, non-hit shooting. The team consisted of Lieutenant Stefanie Fredericks, and Sergeants Dinah Grote and Laura Haynes. Attorney Cindy Hernandez of the Office of Independent Review also responded.

When the team arrived at the location there was an active command post and containment of two crime scene areas. Investigators learned that the series of events culminated into a deputy involved, non-hit shooting, involving Deputies Dejay Barber, Kevin Lawler and David Perry. The outstanding suspect was located within the containment, and was ultimately bitten by a Sheriff's Department canine. He was taken into custody. The personnel involved in the incident are uniformed patrol deputies working uniformed patrol.

> IAB NOTE: IAB Sergeant Dinah Grote checked to see that the watch commander, Lieutenant Henry Saucedo, took reasonable steps to ensure that the involved and witness personnel did not discuss the incident among themselves or with uninvolved persons prior to being interviewed by the assigned investigators, and that the involved and witness personnel did not collectively consult with their attorney or representative. In addition, IAB Sergeant Grote checked to see if the watch commander attempted to have involved and witness personnel gather in the company of a supervisor (Sergeant Joseph O'Connor) until they have provided a statement to the assigned investigators.

SYNOPSIS:

On February 10, 2010, at 2126 hours, Compton Station patrol deputies received a radio call of shots fired in the "Food 4 Less" parking lot at 1900 W. Rosecrans Avenue, in the City of Compton. As they responded, the call was updated to an attempt car jacking and assault with a deadly weapon.

The call also stated the suspect was a male Hispanic adult wearing black clothing. The suspect had reportedly pointed a handgun at the victim, who was driving a white Chevy Suburban. The suspect told the victim to get out of the vehicle in an apparent attempt to steal it. The victim did not get out of his vehicle and sped off across the parking lot. The suspect fired several rounds at the victim's vehicle striking it. The victim was not hit. The victim drove to his home a short distance away and called the Sheriff's Department. A security guard at the "Food 4 Less" witnessed the shooting and told deputies the suspect had fled on foot, west through the parking lot, and then north on Rosecrans Avenue.

While checking the area for the suspect, Early Morning Unit 285E, Deputies Kevin Lawler, the driver, and Dejay Barber, the book-man, saw a male that matched the suspect description in the residential area of [redacted] E. 139th Street, Compton. As the deputies drove west bound on 139th, the male (Suspect Allen Gonzalez) saw the deputies, so he attempted to conceal himself by ducking down behind a parked compact vehicle in the residential driveway of [redacted] E. 139th Street. When the deputies neared the suspect, they put their spotlights on him. The suspect then walked south toward the front end of a Sport Utility Vehicle (Chevy Trail Blazer) that was parked at the north curb line in front of the location. As he did this, he removed a handgun from his waistband area.

Deputy Barber opened his passenger's side door to make contact with the male as Deputy Lawler stopped the patrol car, just east of the Chevy Trail Blazer. As the deputies began to exit their patrol car, Suspect Gonzalez stood up from the front of the Trail Blazer and fired approximately four rounds at the deputies from a handgun. Deputy Barber fired 2-3 rounds at the suspect. The suspect then ran westbound on the north sidewalk of 139th Street. As he did this, he turned his upper torso back toward Deputies Barber and Lawler. Deputy Lawler fired two rounds and Deputy Barber fired another 2-3 rounds at the suspect, missing him. The suspect continued to run westbound on 139th Street toward Parmalee Avenue.

As the shooting was occurring, Deputy Perry, and his ride-along, Deputy Jason Schmoker, who at the time was assigned to Pitchess Detention Center - South Facility, drove north on Parmalee Avenue from Rosecrans Boulevard. As they entered the intersection of Parmalee and 139th Street, Deputies Perry and Schmoker heard gun fire, and then saw the suspect running westbound on the north sidewalk of 139th Street, rounding the corner to northbound Parmalee Avenue. Deputies Perry and Schmoker saw the suspect was armed with a handgun.

As Deputy Perry crossed 139th Street, Suspect Gonzalez ran in a northwest direction across the front of their patrol car. Deputy Perry stopped his patrol at the west curb line of Parmalee Avenue and exited the vehicle. As he did this, Suspect Gonzalez turned toward them and pointed his handgun at the deputies. Deputy Perry responded by firing two rounds at the suspect. Deputy Schmoker did not fire his weapon, but took cover to the rear of the patrol car.

Suspect Gonzalez continued running northbound on Parmalee Avenue. The deputies lost sight of Suspect Gonzalez near the southwest corner of 138th Street and Parmalee Avenue. They believed the suspect had possibly jumped over a fence into a residential back yard.

An area containment was quickly established, and Aero Bureau and Canine Services Detail was requested and responded. Canine Services Detail, along with members of the Special Enforcement Detail, arrived at the location. Based on the fact Suspect Gonzalez was possibly involved in the initial assault with a deadly weapon call, coupled with the fact he had fired a handgun at deputies on two occasions, Canine Service Detail Lieutenant Vera authorized the canine deployment without the use of canine announcements.

Canine Deputy Romeo Ingreso, his canine "Randy," and his search team began clearing yards in the contained area. As the team was searching, LASD Airship 24 utilized their Forward Looking Infra Red (FLIR) device and advised they had a heat source in a rear yard of [redacted] underneath a boat.

Deputy Ingreso deployed his canine into the rear yard of the location in the presence of Canine Sergeant Eric Lee. The canine located and bit Suspect Gonzalez, who was hiding underneath the boat in the rear yard of the location. The suspect no longer had the handgun in his possession. A field show-up was conducted, and Deputies Barber, Lawler, Perry, and Schmoker positively identified Suspect Gonzalez as the shooter. For further, refer to the supplemental reports by Deputies Curtis Brown, [redacted] and Daniel Vizcarra, presented in Volume 2, Exhibit R, or the Incident Report in Volume 1, Exhibit C.

Both an LASD "gun" canine, as well as a Long Beach Police "scent" canine responded to the scene in an attempt to locate the suspect's weapon. The suspect was interviewed by Compton Operation Safe Street detectives, and he admitted to hiding the handgun in the rear yard of [redacted]. The gun, a 380 caliber semiautomatic handgun, was recovered at the crawl space entrance located at the rear of the house. It was later learned the handgun had possibly been used in several previous shootings and was being tested by the Scientific Services Bureau-Firearms Section.

During this incident, no one was struck by the gunfire, which occurred in a residential neighborhood. The deputies' bullets struck three parked vehicles, a wrought iron fence along the northern sidewalk, and a home on the northwest corner of Parmalee Avenue and 139th Street. The suspect's rounds struck a parked vehicle.

During the search for the suspect's weapon, detectives learned that Suspect Gonzalez and four accomplices had been involved in a day long crime spree. Suspect Gonzalez had committed an armed car jacking in the Long Beach area where he stole a blue Honda Accord. He, and the four accomplices who followed him in their white vehicle, drove to Culver City where they committed a burglary. For further, refer to the criminal reports from Long Beach and Culver City Police Department's located in Volume 2, Exhibit BB, of the case book.

Suspect Gonzalez and the four accomplices then drove to the "Food 4 Less" parking lot in Compton, where they discarded the stolen Honda Accord. Suspect Gonzalez attempted to steal/carjack the occupied Chevy Suburban by firing three rounds at the victim before he drove away. For further, regarding the attempt car jacking, see the Incident and supplemental reports in Volume 1, Exhibits A and B, of the case book.

The four accomplices were later located in the described white follow-vehicle, within the area of the containment. All were arrested and booked at Compton Station. They were all identified as "Compton Tokers" gang members. For further, regarding the recovered-stolen Honda Accord, see a copy of the CHP-180, in Volume 2, Exhibit CC. Regarding the arrest and booking of the four accomplices, refer to the supplemental reports by Deputies [redacted], Eric Gomez, and Claudia Rodriguera, in Volume 2, Exhibits DD and EE, of the case book.

Suspect Gonzalez sustained canine rakes and tears to his left forearm, canine rakes and punctures to his left forearm, and canine rakes to his left hip. He had also been punched in the face by the Canine Handler, Deputy [redacted]. Special Enforcement Bureau, Emergency Services Detail Deputies Dana Vilander, Larry McCabe, and Joseph Baclawski, treated Suspect Gonzalez in the field.

Suspect Gonzalez was later transported to Gardena Memorial Hospital where he was seen and treated by Doctor Jackson for his injuries. Suspect Gonzalez was medically cleared and was booked at the Century Regional Detention Center.

The criminal investigation will be handled by Compton Operation Safe Streets Detective [redacted], and the use of force was handled by SEB Canine Sergeant Eric Lee. Refer to a copy of the Supervisor's Report on the Use of Force completed by Sergeant Lee, presented in Volume 2, Exhibit X.

INVOLVED EMPLOYEE STATEMENTS:

Deputy Dejay Barber was interviewed by IAB Sergeant Dinah Grote on September 9, 2010, at 0915 hours, at the IAB Commerce office. He declined representation. Below is a summary of the interview. Precise wording may be obtained by reviewing the digitally audio recorded interview located in IAB's audio files, and/or the verbatim transcripts listed in Volume 1*, under the* Transcriptions section of the casebook.

Deputy Barber stated he was working as the book-man in a marked patrol vehicle with his partner, Deputy Kevin Lawler, the driver. He heard a "car jacking/illegal shooting" call for service voiced over the radio. The call stated the victim drove away after being shot, and the suspect was last seen running north bound, along with his description. Believing the suspect might be from a local gang, they drove north on Albertson Avenue from Rosecrans Avenue into a residential area called the "Rosewoods."

> IAB Note: For further, refer to the "Attempt Car jacking, Assault with a Deadly Weapon (handgun)" incident report under file #910-02257-2812-038, presented in Volume 1, Exhibit A, and the associated supplemental reports, in Volume 1, Exhibit B.

They drove north on Albertson Avenue then west onto 139th Street. Deputy Lawler told him a male was on the north sidewalk of 139th Street. Looking to the north sidewalk, Deputy Barber saw a male (Suspect Gonzalez) who matched the suspect description on the north portion of the sidewalk near or at the driveway of [redacted] East 139th Street.

Simultaneously, Deputy Barber illuminated Suspect Gonzalez with his spotlight and opened his passenger door as the patrol car came to a stop parallel, and just east of, a parked Chevy Trail Blazer at the north curb line. When he did this, Suspect Gonzalez immediately reached toward his waistband area and removed a handgun while he walked south toward the front end of the parked Chevy Trail Blazer. As Deputy Barber exited the patrol car, he saw a muzzle flash come from Suspect Gonzalez' area and then heard glass shatter from the Chevy Trailblazer, which was adjacent to their patrol vehicle.

Deputy Barber said Suspect Gonzalez fired approximately four rounds at them and then he ducked down behind the front of the Trail Blazer. Deputy Barber exited the patrol car and took cover behind the rear end of the Trail Blazer, removing his weapon from his holster. When Deputy Barber looked toward the suspect, Suspect Gonzalez started to run north west onto the north sidewalk of 139th Street. Gonzalez angled/bladed his body back to the right, extended his right arm, which was holding a pistol, and fired several more rounds at the deputies. As Suspect Gonzalez was running and shooting at them, Deputy Barber fired three consecutive rounds at Suspect Gonzalez.

Suspect Gonzalez ran to the corner of 139th and Parmalee Avenue. Deputy Barber could see Suspect Gonzalez pointing his handgun back toward Deputy Lawler who was standing in the middle of the street near the patrol vehicle. Believing Suspect Gonzalez was going to shoot more rounds at Deputy Lawler, Deputy Barber said he fired approximately 3-4 more consecutive rounds at Suspect Gonzalez just before he turned to run north on the east sidewalk of Parmalee Avenue. Deputy Barber could see his rounds striking the wrought iron fence as the suspect ran. He heard Deputy Lawler broadcast their shooting over the radio.

> IAB Note: The house located on the [redacted] ([redacted] E, 139th Street) has a wrap-around wrought iron fence at the property line.

Suspect Gonzalez continued to run north on the east sidewalk of Parmalee Avenue. Deputy Barber saw a black and white patrol car driving north on Parmalee Avenue stop just south of 139th Street. Deputy Barber ran to the corner and watched Suspect Gonzalez run north west across Parmalee Avenue, while he simultaneously conducted a tactical reload of his magazine.

Barber heard two gunshots, which he believed came from the direction of the patrol car. He said he did not know if Suspect Gonzalez had fired any more rounds while on Parmalee Avenue. He then saw Suspect Gonzalez jump over a fence into a residential yard on the west side of the street and out of view. He said an area containment was established and the suspect was captured.

During this shooting, Deputy Barber shot six rounds from his handgun. When the suspect ran from the parked vehicle, Deputy Barber believed he had shot 2-3 rounds. He said he had shot 3-4 more rounds when the suspect was approaching the corner. He recalled hearing a "couple of rounds" coming from his left side, where Deputy Lawler was last seen, but he did not witness Deputy Lawler shooting. He said his backdrop was street and pedestrian traffic, which there was none, and a house located on the north west corner of 139th Street and Parmalee Avenue. He stopped firing when the suspect ran north from the corner.

Deputy Barber said the incident happened "so fast," and he estimated that from the beginning of the shooting to the end of the shooting, the duration was approximately 45-60 seconds. He stated he was not injured during this incident. For further, refer to the "Attempt Murder on a Peace Officer" Incident Report under file #010-02258-2812-055, Deputy Barber's supplemental report, and his diagram depicting the shooting scene in Volume 1, Exhibits C, D, and E.

In a check of Deputy Barber's Shooting Records and previous to this shooting, it showed he last qualified with his weapon on [redacted]. Refer to the copy of Deputy Barber's Weapons, Shooting, and Training Records presented in Volume 1, Exhibit F.

Deputy Kevin Lawler was interviewed by IAB Sergeant Dinah Grote on September 15, 2010, at 0933 hours, at the IAB Commerce office. He was represented by Anna Slotky from Green & Shinee. Below is a summary of the interview. Precise wording may be obtained by reviewing the digitally audio recorded interview located in IAB's audio files, and/or the verbatim transcripts listed in Volume 1*, under the* Transcriptions section of the casebook.

Deputy Lawler stated that he and his partner, Deputy Dejay Barber, were at Compton Station when they heard a "shots fired" call over the stations' Public Address System. En route to the call, Deputy Lawler, the driver, stated the call was upgraded to an attempt car jacking or assault with a deadly weapon. The call also provided a suspect description and last seen direction.

IAB Note: For further, refer to the "Attempt Car jacking, Assault with a Deadly Weapon (handgun)" incident report under file #910-02257-2812-038, presented in Volume 1, Exhibit A, and the associated supplemental reports, in Volume 1, Exhibit B.

Believing the suspect possibly went into a residential area near the incident, Deputy Lawler drove north on Albertson Avenue from 142nd Street to 139th Street. As Deputy Lawler entered the intersection of Albertson and 139th, he looked to his left (west) and saw a male walking east on the north sidewalk of 139th Street, in front of the residence at [redacted] The male matched the description of the suspect. Deputy Lawler relayed this information to Deputy Barber, then turned west onto 139th Street where he lost sight of the suspect behind the Chevy Trail Blazer. As Deputy Barber started to open his passenger's door, Deputy Lawler stopped the patrol car in the street, east of the Trail Blazer, with his front bumper almost aligned with the Trail Blazer's rear bumper. Deputy Lawler put the patrol vehicle into park, opened his door, and started to exit when he heard a "rapid succession" of four gunshots coming in his and Deputy Barber's direction.

Completely exiting the patrol car, Deputy Lawler took cover in between the open car door and the door frame, behind the engine block. Drawing his weapon, Deputy Lawler looked toward the front end of the Trail Blazer, but could not see the suspect. Due to the immediate gunfire by the suspect, Deputy Lawler lost sight of Deputy Barber after Barber exited the patrol car. Deputy Lawler believed that Deputy Barber was on the right side of the patrol car because after the suspect shot at them, he heard several gunshots being fired from his right side, then saw the suspect run from the front end of the Trail Blazer west onto the north sidewalk. As the suspect ran on the sidewalk in the area of the residence at [redacted], he turned back toward the deputies. Deputy Lawler saw muzzle flashes coming from the front of the suspect's upper body, and heard additional (unknown) gunshots.

Seeing the muzzle flashes, Deputy Lawler fired one round at the suspect, readjusted his sights, then fired an additional round at the suspect, who continued to run west on the sidewalk. As Deputy Lawler looked down the sights of his weapon and from his peripheral vision, he saw a marked black and white patrol car travel north on Parmalee Avenue at 139th, so he stopped firing and re-holstered his weapon.

Deputy Lawler ran west in the street to see where the suspect ran to, used his handheld radio to broadcast his shooting and set up an area containment for the suspect. He then saw Deputy Barber standing in the street, just west of him, in front of the residence at [redacted] East 139th Street.

Deputy Lawler stated he was handling the radio traffic and he did not hear any additional gunshots. Deputy Lawler only learned of Deputy Perry's involvement in the shooting when he notified his field sergeant. He said his shooting backdrop was several parked vehicles on the north curb line west of him, the wrought iron fence at [redacted] East 139th Street, and the corner house on the north west side of 139th and Parmalee.

Deputy Lawler stated he was not injured during this incident. For further, refer to the "Attempt Murder on a Peace Officer" Incident Report under file #010-02258-2812-055, Deputy Lawler's supplemental report and his diagram depicting the shooting scene in Volume 1, Exhibits C, G, and H.

In a check of Deputy Lawler's Shooting Records and previous to this shooting, it showed he last qualified with his weapon on [redacted]. Refer to the copy of Deputy Lawler's Weapons, Shooting, and Training Records presented in Volume 1, Exhibit I.

Deputy David Perry was interviewed by IAB Sergeant Dinah Grote on September 15, 2010, at 1023 hours, at the IAB Commerce office. He was represented by Anna Slotky from Green & Shinee. Below is a summary of the interview. Precise wording may be obtained by reviewing the digitally audio recorded interview located in IAB's audio files, and/or the verbatim transcripts listed in Volume 1, under the Transcriptions section of the casebook.

Deputy Perry said that he had a ride-along, Deputy Jason Schmoker, from the Pitchess Detention Facility, during the shift. He said a "shots fired, car jacking, assault with a deadly weapon" radio call was voiced, so he drove to the "Rosecrans Plaza" at Rosecrans Boulevard and Central Avenue to assist. The call also provided a suspect description and last seen location.

> IAB Note: For further, refer to the "Attempt Car jacking, Assault with a Deadly Weapon (handgun)" incident report under file #910-02257-2812-038, presented in Volume 1, Exhibit A, and the associated supplemental reports, in Volume 1, Exhibit B.

At the plaza, Deputy Perry did not see anyone matching the suspect's description. Also, he learned the victim had driven himself home, located in a residential area north of the plaza. En route to the victim's home, Deputy Perry drove north on Parmalee Avenue driving at a slow speed looking for the suspect. As Deputy Perry entered the intersection at 139th Street, he heard approximately five to seven gunshots coming directly from the east.

Coming to a stop in the intersection, Deputy Perry looked to his left (east) and saw a male matching the suspect description provided in the call. The male (Suspect Gonzalez) was running west bound on the north sidewalk in front of the residence at [redacted] East 139th Street. In his left hand, Suspect Gonzalez was holding a silver semiautomatic handgun pointed back behind him toward a west facing black and white patrol car that was parked in the street with its spotlights on. Suspect Gonzalez ran to the north east corner, paused for a second as he looked in Deputy Perry's direction, then turned and ran north bound on Parmalee Avenue on the east sidewalk.

By this time, Deputy Perry had crossed the intersection as Suspect Gonzalez ran in a northwesterly direction across Parmalee Avenue in front of and in line with Deputy Perry's patrol vehicle. Deputy Perry feared the suspect had possibly shot deputies, so he stopped his patrol car on the west side of Parmalee, just north of 139th Street, and exited his vehicle at the west side gutter. Deputy Perry drew his weapon and took cover behind his open door and the door frame as Suspect Gonzalez ran west across the front of their patrol vehicle, holding the handgun in his left hand with his arm raised, at an approximate distance of 15 feet.

Before Deputy Perry could give Suspect Gonzalez any verbal commands, Suspect Gonzalez with his left arm raised, turned his upper torso to his left toward Deputies Perry and Schmoker, and pointed the handgun at Deputies Perry and Schmoker. Fearing for their safety, Deputy Perry fired two rounds at Suspect Gonzalez. He said the first round was fired at Suspect Gonzalez in front of his patrol vehicle at the west curb line on Parmalee Avenue. The second round was fired immediately after the first round, after Deputy Perry reacquired his sights as the suspect was near the west sidewalk on Parmalee Avenue. During this time, Deputy Schmoker exited his passenger seat and took cover to the rear of the patrol car as Suspect Gonzalez turned north and continued to run on the west sidewalk on Parmalee Avenue, out of view. Deputy Perry maintained his position of containment until the suspect was apprehended.

Deputy Perry stated he was not injured during this incident. For further, refer to the "Attempt Murder on a Peace Officer" Incident Report under file #010-02258-2812-055, Deputy Perry's supplemental report and his diagram depicting the shooting scene in Volume 1, Exhibits C, J, and K.

EMPLOYEE WITNESS STATEMENTS:

Deputy Jason Schmoker was interviewed by IAB Sergeant Dinah Grote on September 13, 2010, at 0959, at the IAB Commerce office. He was represented by Anna Slotky from Green & Shinee. Below is a summary of the interview. Precise wording may be obtained by reviewing the digitally audio recorded interview located in IAB's audio files and/or the verbatim transcripts listed in Volume 1*, under the* Transcriptions section of the casebook.

Deputy Schmoker stated he is a trainee at [redacted]. At the time of the shooting, he was assigned to Pitchess Detention Center participating as a patrol ride-along at Compton Station, and that he was assigned to ride with Deputy Perry for the shift. Deputy Perry was the driver of their patrol car when they responded to the "Rosecrans Plaza" regarding an assault with a deadly weapon call. The call provided the suspect description and last seen direction. Driving north on Parmalee Avenue in search of the suspect, Deputy Schmoker said they were approaching the south side of the intersection at 139th Street when he heard approximately five to six gunshots coming from the east (right side). Looking east, Deputy Schmoker saw a male with a shaved head, black shirt and shorts, running west on the north sidewalk on 139th Street toward them with a pistol in his left hand. At the time of the shooting, Deputy Schmoker believed the suspect had fired the rounds at them.

By the time the suspect had arrived at the northeast corner of Parmalee Avenue, Deputy Perry stopped the patrol vehicle on Parmalee Avenue, approximately 20 feet north of the 139th Street. He said as Suspect Gonzalez ran north west across Parmalee, the suspect turned to his torso and head to the left (bladed his body), and with his left arm extended outward, Suspect Gonzalez pointed the handgun at him and Deputy Perry. Deputy Schmoker removed his seatbelt, exited the patrol car, and pointed his weapon at the suspect. By the time he raised his weapon, the suspect had already run to the sidewalk and then out of view. Schmoker ran to take cover at the rear bumper area of the patrol car. He said by the time he arrived there, Deputy Perry fired two to three rounds at the suspect who was already at the west sidewalk running full sprint, then jumped a fence into a residential yard.

> IAB Note: Deputy Schmoker could not recall which side of Parmalee Avenue Deputy Perry had parked the patrol vehicle. During the incident, Deputy Schmoker stated he was in fear for his life.

Suspect Gonzalez continued to run west across Parmalee Avenue and ran into the back yard of a residence on the west side of Parmalee Avenue, out of view. Deputy Schmoker stated he and Deputy Perry maintained a containment position at Parmalee Avenue and 138th Street until the suspect was later located.

Deputy Schmoker stated he was not injured during this incident. For further, refer to the "Attempt Murder on a Peace Officer" Incident Report under file #010-02258-2812-055, Deputy Schmoker's supplemental report and his diagram depicting the shooting scene in Volume 1, Exhibits C, M, and N.

NON-EMPLOYEE WITNESS STATEMENTS:

SUSPECT STATEMENT:

On February 11, 2001, at 0045 hours, Suspect Gonzalez was interviewed by Operation Safe Streets Detectives [redacted], [redacted], and Joseph Sumner. Below is a summary of their report.

Suspect Gonzalez told them he was walking east on 139th Street when he saw the patrol vehicle coming his way. He said he ducked into a driveway and tried to hide behind a car, but the deputies put their spotlights on him, so he shot at them twice from his handgun before the deputies could get out of the car. He said he did this because he did not want to get pulled over. He said the deputies started shooting at him, so he ran west on 139th Street and south on Parmalee Avenue. He said "other" deputies were shooting at him from both sides. He then stated the deputies shot at him first.

Suspect Gonzalez stated he was only trying to scare the deputies and that he only ran because the deputies were shooting at him. During the interview, Suspect Gonzalez disclosed the location of his handgun. For further detail regarding the interview and the recovered handgun, refer to the (4) photographs and supplemental reports by [redacted], [redacted], and Marco Miranda, in Volume 2, Exhibits Z and AA.

On February 11, 2010, at 0224 hours, Suspect Gonzalez was interviewed by Canine Sergeant Eric Lee, at Gardena Memorial Hospital. Suspect Gonzalez did not want to talk or answer any questions, so the interview was terminated. Precise wording may be obtained by reviewing the digitally audio recorded interview located in IAB's audio files and/or the verbatim transcripts listed in Volume 1*, under the* Transcriptions section or the DVD, listed in Volume 2, Exhibit Y*, of the casebook.*

Precise wording may be obtained by reviewing the digitally audio recorded interview located in IAB's audio files and/or the verbatim transcripts listed in Volume 1*, under the* Transcriptions section of the casebook.

> IAB Note: It should be noted that during the interview, Suspect Gonzalez was very inaudible, unintelligible, and lethargic. He stated he used "crystal" methamphetamine in the morning hours on February 10, 2010. He then stated he used it "two days ago."

Suspect Gonzalez stated he told his "homies" that he was going home and he started walking. Using a 380-caliber handgun, Suspect Gonzalez said he shot at deputies because he did not want to get "pulled over" and go to jail, adding it was a "stupid thing." He said he hid from the police and a dog bit his leg, so he grabbed the dog by the neck. Deputies told him to "get off" the dog, then the dog bit his arm, so he pushed the dog. He said he was punched in the jaw, kicked in the leg, and handcuffed.

Suspect Gonzalez stated both arms, and his left leg were bitten by the dog and his jaw was sore. Photographs of his injuries were taken and are included in this case book in Volume 2, Exhibit T.
